L.O.L. SOCIAL AT ORANGE HALL

By Review Representative

SAANICHTON, Oct. 11.—A very enjoyable card tournament and social for is being planned to make the friends of Saanich L.O.L. and Harmony Lodge in the Orange Hall on Saturday evening last.

At the refreshment hour R. W. Two, Frank Hobbs, P.G.M., was congratulated on his being appointed chairman of the Trustees of School Boards for British Columbia.

In acknowledging the compliment Mr. Hobbs gave an account of the work done at the Convention of School Trustees, dealing particularly with the question of Bible reading in the schools.

It was announced that Harmony Lodge would hold a social and dance in the Orange Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 16th. Proceeds to assist the piano fund.

Finder's orchestra has been engaged and dancing will be from nine to one.

PRESENTATION TO A. McDONALD

A meeting of the ratepayers of the North Saanich School district was held on Friday, the 5th inst., at 8 p.m. The chair, at the request of the committee in charge, was taken by Mr. Smith, principal of the school. The chairman stated that the meeting was called to do honor to Mr. Alex. McDonald, who had retired from the position of trustee after some 25 years' service at the last annual meeting of the ratepayers. After some further remarks the chairman called upon Mr. Alan Calvert, secretary of the school trustees, to make the presentation. Mr. Calvert, with a few well chosen words, presented to Mr. McDonald, on behalf of the ratepayers, a mahogany library table and a writing set composed of a Wahl fountain pen and pencil and stand.

Mr. McDonald, after recovering from his surprise, thanked all for their good wishes and thoughtful action, and stated that although he had retired as trustee he still had retained his interest in the well-being of the younger generation.

SIDNEY

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harrison, Fifth Street, are leaving shortly for California, where they will make their home. Mr. Harrison has been a driver of the Gray Line and former Flying Line Stages for many years and could almost drive to Victoria and back blindfolded. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will depart with best wishes of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenwood, who have been spending the last week in Vancouver, have returned to their home on Beacon Ave.

The monthly meeting of St. Andrew's branch of the Women's Auxiliary will take place at the home of Mrs. Hercher, Deep Cove, on Wednesday, Oct. 17th.

Winifred Taylor, a former resident in Sidney, spent the weekend visiting at the home of Dulcie Brethour, "The Orchard."

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the school on Tuesday, Oct. 16th, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Haugh, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., is the speaker for the evening.

Miss Leona Simms and Mrs. Frances of Victoria are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fyke, Third St.

After Sunday next all stray cows that come into your yard and break up the sidewalk and eat your new plants and shrubs will be "received" with open arms, as it were, at the "pound" at Mr. Thornley's place off Queen's Avenue. If you arrive with a bossie who has broken into your flower lot and caused the disappearance of various prize-winning perennials, and no one is at home just open the gate marked "pound" and turn her in. She will be royally entertained until her owner arrives. A small reward is being offered to those that bring offending cattle to the pound instead of having the poundkeeper go out and round of the stock. Let's go boys! One cow, one quarter!

Monthly Competition

The North Saanich Golf Club will hold their monthly competition and sweepstake this weekend, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 13th and 14th. A handsome challenge cup has been presented by Mr. J. J. White for the ladies of the club. This cup will be played for towards the end of the month, the definite date to be given out later.

SAANICH BOARD PLANS FINE TIME

By Review Representative

SAANICHTON, Oct. 12.—No effort is being spared to make the manorade hall arranged by the Saanich Board of Trade a conspicuous success. With such a worthy object as the improving of the local beaches it is felt that their effort will be given a generous measure of support. The date has been set for October 22nd and Pat's five-piece orchestra engaged.

DEEP COVE MUST HAVE LIGHT!

Difficulties are still being experienced in the negotiations for the proposed extension of light and power facilities in the Deep Cove district, and the matter was the basis of much discussion at the monthly Board of Trade meeting here Tuesday night.

A deputation will wait upon the B.C. Electric Railway Company, to press the claims of this growing district for much-needed service without further delay.

The residents in the Deep Cove district, when approached recently by the B.C. Electric Co., gave their enthusiastic support to the project, and practically every resident along the proposed line has signified his willingness to guarantee a minimum amount per annum for a period of five years, to cover the cost of line construction.

Approximately sixty consumers will be served along a line two and three quarters miles long, or one consumer for every eighty yards of line. The cost of this line in itself is almost fifty percent oversubscribed by present guarantees.

Although the B.C. Electric have already poles on their right-of-way touching this area, they propose to construct two miles of line from Patricia Bay to supply this area, and the cost of these two miles of construction must be included in the total requisite guarantee from Deep Cove.

These two miles of line would be at present unproductive but should not long remain so, touching as it does the Towner Park waterfront subdivision at present being developed and the Towner Farm recently subdivided, as well as the entire length of the Patricia Bay subdivision, which has not been canvassed for support.

It is to be hoped that the B.C. Electric Co., realizing the future potentialities of this line, and being already assured of practical support in Deep Cove, will find it possible to undertake this extension under the present guarantees, and commence construction this fall.

BOARD OF TRADE DISCUSSES POUND, WHARVES, LIGHT, ETC.

The Sidney Board of Trade meeting held Tuesday, Oct. 9th, was very well attended, and a lot of business put through.

The secretary reported that all bills in connection with the pound have been paid, and that the service is now operating. Information regarding scale of poundkeeper's fee, including mileage, notification and auction fee, was also given to the board.

Mr. Cochran reported interviewing the Dept. of Public Works in reference to Beacon Ave. Float and that the work is in the hands of the engineers at the present time. Col. Wilby was also seen in connection with the carrying away of the steps and instructions were issued to have repairs effected. Repairs at Third St. Wharf are being carried out at present, and will put this wharf in first class shape again.

Mr. Cochran reporting on proposed Steveston-Sidney Ferry Service advised that this matter has been given a lot of attention, and further developments will be announced in the near future which will be very gratifying to the board.

The secretary read correspondence from the Public Works Dept. in connection with streets and sidewalks and Col. Peck has kindly consented to introduce a delegation from the board to the Hon. the Minister of Public Works and his associates at an early date to go thoroughly into these questions.

In answer to a request from the board a sign warning motorists of their approach to school grounds has been erected and the question of draining of school grounds is also receiving the attention of the Dept.

The question of the proposed extension of electric light into Deep Cove created considerable discussion. The board was advised that it was almost impossible at the present time to raise the necessary guarantee of $2,400.00 demanded by the B.C. Electric, but that practically everyone in the proposed area has signed this petition, giving a guarantee of nearly $2,000.00. The matter has been left open until Oct. 15th and a further canvass is being made in hopes of increasing this total. The Sidney Board has given this matter considerable attention in the past, deputations from the board have taken the question up with Victoria officials of the company and the secretary was instructed to write to the company at Victoria asking that in view of their guarantee being so nearly met and the growth that is taking place in Deep Cove area, that this question be reviewed very seriously and the work of extending their service into this area be put in hand. A committee was appointed to interview the Victoria officials on the matter.

Tickets of admission may be obtained from the members. These entitle the holder to admission and refreshments, also to a chance on a number of beautiful tombola prizes.

Players are asked to take their seats at 8 o'clock as playing will start at 8.15 sharp.

A candy stall and several other attractions have been added and it is hoped that these will prove of interest to those attending.

FULFORD

Mrs. Jessie Ayers, Fulford Harbour, announces the engagement of her daughter, Inez B., to Mr. Frank W. Pyatt, of Beaver Point, Salt Spring Island, B.C. The wedding will take place the last week of November.

The St. Mary's Church Guild held a very enjoyable military 500 drive, followed by a dance on Friday evening. There was quite a good attendance, considering the wet night. The winners, table 4, with a score of 26, were Miss Eleanor Gropp, Miss Edna Morris, Mr. Ray Morris and Mr. Jim Akerman. Consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Price, Mrs. A. J. Mollet, Mr. A. Davis and Mr. C. Hamilton. Winners of the lucky chairs were Mrs. Wakelin, Mrs. Borel, Mr. Dick Hamilton. Fifty-three dollars were taken in at the door.

Mrs. Reid, secretary of South Salt Spring Women's Institute, will have within a few days a number of empty jars available to distribute to anyone who would care to make jam or bottle fruit to send to the little crippled children at the Mill Bay Solarium.

Mrs. M. Gyves went to Victoria on Friday for a day or so.

GANGES

By Review Representative

A meeting was held on Monday evening, Oct. 1st, in the Mahon Hall, Ganges, to induce poultrymen to sign contracts with the B.C. Egg and Poultry Co-operation Association. Mr. A. R. Price, who presided over the meeting introduced Mr. Wallace, pool organizer for Vancouver Island, who in his address mentioned that the movement for members was meeting with success. It is expected that a local branch will be formed here.

Miss K. Cropper left Salt Spring on Monday for Victoria after spending a week or so with her brother, Mr. L. Cropper, and friends, on the Island.

Constable and Mrs. Tweedhope have taken up residence on Rainbow Road, in the property recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown had the misfortune to lose their home by fire on Monday evening last. Having left home about an hour to attend a dance at the Central Hall, they were notified that their house was on fire and they immediately hurried to the scene—but unfortunately too late to be of any assistance for an arriving they found their home completely razed. We understand the house was not insured.

Mrs. Dorothy Elliot of Victoria is spending a week or so with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur of Ganges.

Mr. George Michell, general foreman of road work, visited Salt Spring for a few days last week.

Mr. Kenneth Halley is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Halley, on the island.

The screen has quit borrowing technique from the stage—but it took just one big hint before it did so. And that hint is working out most successfully.

For years we have seen behind the footlights, in stage comedy, vaudeville skits, musical comedy and minstrel shows, the comedy duo. There were many Irishman-Jew, Irishman-Dutchman, Negro-Italian, Swede-Irishman and other mixed-dialect pairs of comies.

There were also pairs of Irishmen, Jews, Swedes, Negroes, Italians, Dutchmen. And pairs of no particular race or dialect, but usually contrasting in type: one thin, the other fat; one tall, the other short; one stupid; the other smart. What great verbal duels, and bouncing of comedy action from comic to comic, they stage! The mere monologist could not hold his own with the paired comies "feeding" each other comedy opportunities.

Great success followed the adaptation of the comedy duo to the silver sheet. Two comedians suitably paired were not just twice as effective as one, but three times as effective—ability and vehicles being equal!

One of the newest and most recent examples is "The Life of Riley," featuring George Sidney and Charlie Murray, coming to the Auditorium Theatre, Sidney, tonight and Friday night, commencing at 8 o'clock. E. M. Asher, who produced the film for First National Pictures, also produced the film "The Cohens and the Kellys" and "McFadden's Flats," among other very successful film comedies.

He demonstrates in the Sidney-Murray mirth vehicle the most hilarious possibilities of the co-featured or co-starred film comedians. Alone, either George Sidney or Charlie Murray is a great comedian, great enough, at least, to realize on the screen the best possibilities of any story and pay character that the ingenuity of the scenario writer can devise. Together, with their ideally contrasting types and methods of making the spectator laugh, their powers are multiplied.

It happens that a comedy vehicle of unusual color, plot, interest and ingenuity backs the efforts of Sidney and Murray in "The Life of Riley." Mann Page, noted playwright, wrote the story especially for the famous comies, and Howard J. Green adapted it, while a third noted writer, Curtis Benton, wrote the continuity. The writers, director William Beaudine and comedy-constructor Jack Mintz began with an excellent comedy plot fabric and wove into it all the humor any screen laugh picture could bear.

Aside from the powers of the story itself, however, and an excellent supporting cast that includes such trouper as Sam Hardy, Myrtle Stedman, June Marlowe, and Stephen Carr, the teamwork of the celebrated comedians is proof in itself of the value of celluloid comedy duos, suitably paired.

S.S.W.I. MET AT FULFORD HALL

FULFORD HARBOUR, Oct. 11.—The regular monthly meeting of the South Salt Spring Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon in the Institute Hall, Fulford, Mrs. T. M. Jackson, the president, presiding. There was a good attendance, 16 members being present. A letter was read by the secretary from the Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Tranquil re sale of Christmas seals to help the above institution. Anyone wishing to help this cause will be able to buy their Christmas seals shortly from Mrs. Reid, Fulford Harbour. The Fall Fair prize list was distributed. The bronze medal donated by Henry Birks & Sons, Vancouver, for the one scoring the most points at the Fall Fair (1st prizes to count 2 points, 2nd prizes 1 point) resulted in a tie between Mrs. R. Maxwell and Mrs. T. M. Jackson; they decided to draw for the medal, Mrs. Maxwell being the winner. A similar bronze medal was awarded to Miss Valeria Gyves in the children's section. Ten hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. T. H. Lee and Miss Shaw.

ALONE AT NIGHT

There is nothing pleasant about being in a building late at night by one's self. It is easier, of course, to concentrate when one is alone. And for that very reason lonesomeness occurs. It makes us think about ourselves too much. And few of us thoroughly enjoy a photograph of ourselves. Too intimate.

Then, too, it is possible that we are just a bit nervous when we know that we are alone in a building late at night. Afraid? No, not exactly. But we do hear queer noises, don't we? And aren't they loud noises! The windows always rattle more when we are alone. And doesn't the clock tick more distinctly!

Even in the stone age we find that man liked company, and when he found that he was alone as he hovered in his cave he braved the wrath of hordes of enemies to snatch for himself a companion. He probably never thought of love and he wouldn't recognize such an emotion, but he knew he must have somebody with whom to argue, because arguing with one's self isn't exciting.

The young lady who wrote "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," now comes out with the sequel: "But Gentlemen Marry Brunettes." One observing young man, however, rises to remark that it's as tough to live with one as the other.

THINK FOR THE CHILD

When every driver regards every child playing on the sidewalks as a possible victim of his automobile and drives accordingly there will be fewer child fatalities on the streets. The driver must do a large part of the child's thinking. He will also meet many people old enough to vote who have never grown up and he must think for them too if he is to avoid disastrous consequences.

Of course, children shouldn't play in the streets. But in cities thousands of children live long distances from the play grounds and tired, busy mothers may not be able to escort them there. The mother whose child is playing in the street is seldom wilfully negligent; there is a limit to the number of things she can keep her eye on at once. Of course the safety of her family should come first but who can blame her too severely if she commits the very human error of forgetting?

Constant carefulness may take the fun out of motoring, but it may save a future of regrets. Extra caution is the price we must pay for the convenience of the motor age.

The quinine trust has been dissolved by order of a New York judge. That must have been a bitter pill.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE SAYING

OLD DOGS LEARN, TOO

(Taken from the Victoria Daily Times)

Not very long ago a whimsical chemist undertook to disprove the old adage, "you can't make a silk purse from a sow's ear." He got the sow's ear, went into his laboratory, and eventually emerged with a silk purse.

Now Edward L. Thorndike, Columbia University psychologist, steps forward to upset another ancient maxim—"you can't teach an old dog new tricks."

Professor Thorndike spent two years studying the proposition. Now, writing in the current issue of Good Housekeeping, he announces that it is, as a general thing, easier to teach new tricks to an old dog than to a young one.

He made extensive studies of the way adults assimilate new knowledge, and declares that a man of 30, 40 or even 50 can learn a new trade, a new language, or a new language of a new art as quickly as a college youth. Indeed, in some cases the adult will learn quicker and more easily than the youngster.

Professor Thorndike believes there is just one reason why the average person doesn't know twice as much at 40 as he does at 20. That is because the average person, entering his twenties, assumes that his education is complete, and does not try to learn anything more.

All of this is highly encouraging. Too many of us, getting into a rut of habit or work as we leave our youth behind, long to make a change but do not try to because we believe it is too late. We allow ourselves to stay fixed in the grooves we slipped into in our youth.

Professor Thorndike comes to our rescue by telling us, in effect: "Go ahead and try it. Your mind is as fertile and receptive now as it ever was. You can learn anything you want to. If you're not satisfied with what you are doing now, learn how to do something else. It's perfectly possible."

Psychologists, chemists and other scientists have done a good deal for us in recent years. But nothing they have done is much more important than this exploding of the old maxims that we used to trust so implicitly.

Such sayings may represent the accumulated wisdom of the ages, to be sure. But they also may represent only the mistaken notions of our forefathers. They are more apt to fetter us than help us. If we can break away from them we may find a new freedom.

Roof blown on telephone line by wind

A high wind blew the roof off a shack at Thompson, B.C., west of Kamloops, on September 13. The roof landed on the telephone wires, cutting the long-distance line between Vancouver and Kamloops, and severing service between those points.

Telephone maintenance men in Vancouver located the trouble by taking electrical measurements, repairmen were soon on the scene and service was restored within an hour.

Another example of telephone trouble that could not be foreseen or prevented! But no time was lost in remedying the situation.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes. Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 5,000 board feet per acre east of the Coast Range Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to the value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin, "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price of first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, and 8,000 feet per acre west of that may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and the land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purpose areas not exceeding 500 acres may be leased by any one person or company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts, and the range administered under the Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued, based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stockowners may form associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers up to ten head.
